

How many households can be connected by fiber optic cable ftth

Overview

7 million UK homes can now access full-fibre broadband, according to Ofcom's latest annual report on the nation's broadband and mobile networks. The total number of homes passed with FTTH and FTTB in the EU39 reached 244 million homes in September 2023, compared to nearly 219 million in September 2022. Fibre to the Home (FTTH) is an access network method that delivers the highest possible speed of Internet connection by using optical fibre that runs directly into the home, building or office. In addition, 75% of households could opt for a fixed connection with a minimum download speed of 1 Gbps. Traficom has published new availability data as part of its situational picture on the.
