Overview

Tokyo, Japan - Yokogawa Electric Corporation recently announced that it has developed the AQ7275 Optical Time Domain Reflectometer (OTDR) for use in a wide variety of optical fiber installation and maintenance applications. The AQ7275's short event dead zone enables detection of closely spaced events in cables installed in offices and customer premises. Enhancements include a PON option allowing accurate event analysis after a 1x32 splitter with significantly reduced undershoot effects. The warranty period is 1 month and we have 6 pieces Yokogawa Optical Time Domain Reflectometer AQ7275. The picture is a reference picture, we ship randomly, you can contact us to get the real product picture. *All of our products are thoroughly tested, guaranteed to be 100% fully functional, and.
